FOREWORD

We, the mid-century class, are the future citizens of this community. Some of us were born here; some have come from other localities; but none of us will forget his work and play here.

Pioneers who came to this community years ago have handed down to us basic principles and ideals of democracy.

In several years, we, as citizens, shall be proud to go forth into our community to serve usefully, by preserving for posterity, that which has been entrusted to us.

Now, to those of us who will remain in this community and to those who will go onward to new horizons, we present our "Memories"—a written and pictorial record of the part played by the Class of 1950 in Marple-Newtown High School.

DEDICATION

Believing that the youth of any community is that community's greatest asset, we, as youth who are about to take our places in our given communities, wish to express our thanks for all that has been done to fit us to take those places.

In looking back over our high school days, we recall the many things done for us and your generous response to all our activities. We especially appreciate the thoughtfulness of those patrons who have aided us because we were the youth of their community and the future leaders.

Because of your unselfishness to us, we, the Class of 1950, dedicate with great appreciation these "Memories" to you, the citizens of our communities.

Our School Board

The School Board is made up of ten members in all. The individual boards of Marple and Newtown Township meet jointly on the first Tuesday of every month to conduct the business of the Marple-Newtown Joint High School. These men working behind the scenes, almost unnoticed, give unstintingly of their time working for the welfare of all students.

At the present time the board is preparing the way for the evaluation of our school, so that we may enjoy membership and accreditation in the Middle States Association of Colleges and Secondary Schools.

In Appreciation

Most of our faculty members and school personnel have aided in many ways throughout our high school days. It is because of their guidance that we have reached our goal—graduation. Two members of the senior high faculty have especially aided us in our junior and senior years.

To those two, Miss Helen E. Yeingst and Mr. Harry R. Harvey, we, the Class of 1950, extend sincere thanks in appreciation of the fine guidance, service, and loyalty to our class throughout the past two years of our high school activities.

The Principal's Message

In America today, population pressure is such that it is necessary for a large portion of our people to live in close relationship one with the other. A body of people living under the same general conditions form a community. The direction in which a community develops depends to a large extent upon the interest which each individual citizen displays in community affairs.

We pride ourselves on living under a democratic form of government. This means that you and I must exercise our common right to see that our governmental affairs, community as well as county, state, and national, are placed and kept upon a high plane. We have only ourselves to blame if this is not done.

It behooves everyone, then, to keep thoroughly informed in regard to the good and bad points of all local problems and to use this information in a sincere attempt to obtain the finest type of management for our community government. American citizens are too often prone "to let George do it." When "George" is permitted to take the governmental reins into his own hands, experience shows rather often that he will guide affairs in a manner not conducive to the best interests of the majority.

You members of the Class of 1950 are removed only a very few years from receiving the right to vote. Resolve now that you will use this right when it comes to you and that you will use it in such a manner that it will advance the common good.

Covered Bridge

This old covered bridge built in 1860, stands on Goshen Road today as a reminder of an era long past. Although not in use because the Pennsylvania State Highway Department felt that it was unsafe for traffic, this bridge remains today as a landmark of our once rural community.

Cooperation Shows Citizenship

The junior class this year is very proud of its record. Our magazine drive in the fall came off with a bang by putting a substantial profit into our treasury.

At Christmas the junior homeroom won the prize for being the best decorated. Of course, it was only through the full cooperation of the class that we were able to capture top honors.

Members of the class participated in every school activity and made a fine showing in each of them. The junior fellows won the boys' intramural basketball championship.

The annual Junior Prom held on May 20, with a Dreamland theme, topped off a wonderful year.

We are looking forward to our senior year with the hope that it will be as successful as the past one.

Sophomores Show Initiative

This year finds the sophomore class members engaged in all school activities and sports.

We have contributed generously to the various organizations that have asked the school for donations.

The Sophomore Tri-Hi-Y members were victorious in the sale of Easter eggs.

Our "Soph Hop," on March 25, was a big success with Perry Creyaufmiller of the Senior class acting as M. C.

We welcomed the following new members this year: Gloria O'Connor, Bill Eberwein, Ronald Brown, Dorothy Stone, Paul Reid, James Simpson, William Stone, and Helen Scheer.

We are looking forward to two more years of successful work at M. N.

Largest Class Assumes Responsibilities

The freshmen class numbering 81, has had a very active and useful year.

We are hoping that our remaining years in Marple-Newtown High School will be as fruitful as our freshman year has been.

Eighth Graders Work Hard

The eighth grade is divided into two sections. Our class presidents are Bob Harrison and Tom Moore.

This year many new boys and girls entered the eighth grade at Marple-Newtown, included among them was Les Rawson, a boy from England.

One section of the eighth grade won a prize at Christmas time for the best decorated room in the Junior High.

Our Student Council representatives are Patsy Dawn, and Audrey Moyer.

Next year as we move into Junior High we hope to participate more in the school activities.

Well-Adjusted Seventh Graders

There were seventy seventh graders who entered the Marple-Newtown High School this past September of 1949.

Many of our boys have participated in Junior High football, basketball, and baseball.

Our class presidents were Elinor Wessel for Mr. Raffensperger's room and Robert Frounfelker for Mr. Richute's room.

We chose Leonard Cella as our representative to Student Council.

With the help of our treasury, our two homerooms had a very successful Christmas party.

We have done well in the high school so far and hope to do better in the coming years.

Modern education is not the three "R's" of bygone days. It covers many types of recreation and interesting activities. Many seniors of the Class of 1950 have participated in extra-curricular activities.

To learn to cooperate, to develop our initiative, and to assume responsibility — these are a few of the traits that school activities develop. Such traits will prove an asset to the persons who will later participate in community activities.

Aronimink

The Aronimink Country Club, where the Senior Ball of 1950 was held, has become the center of many community affairs since it acquired three hundred acres of land on Newtown Street Road in 1926.

This club has shown its interest in the communities around it in various ways, among which is the offering each year of a twenty-five dollar scholarship for English to a member of the graduating class of our school.

The Student Council Forges Ahead

Never before have we had such a truly active group as this year's Student Council. In answer to innumerable problems this organization could always be counted upon to bring forth the proper solution.

In the field of athletics, new season ticket books were inaugurated. A. A. membership cards were issued, and athletic team schedules were revised. A new system for eligibility to receive a letter through service as a manager was adopted, while larger letters for other sports were studied and put under careful consideration.

For the school, new mirrors were installed in the locker rooms, and a coffee maker was purchased. Progress was made in revising the school constitution, and steps were taken to secure a driving course. A general "clean up" campaign and Christmas contest with prizes for rewards kept school spirit high. In answer to the crowded bus conditions at Broomall, a letter was written to the school board advising the purchase of another bus.

The annual A. A. drive was held again this year with the proceeds supplying much-needed athletic funds.

Thus the Student Council forged ahead constantly endeavoring to uphold the proud Marple-Newtown heritage.

Safety-minded Monitors

"Single file!" "Watch your step!" "Careful!" These were only a few of the many friendly but stern commands issued by our ever-efficient monitors, who this year comprised one of the best staffs in the school's history.

The entire student body as well as the faculty was constantly aware of the many safety measures, especially during fire drills, between periods, and during lunch time, taken for our protection.

Congratulations go to this outstanding group for their fine service to our school.

"Mar-News" Makes Progress

The Mar-News, whose purpose is to meet the tastes of all its readers, has come far this year.

It provides for the sports-lover action photos; for little "Susie Gossip," choice pieces of information from an unknown; and for progressive-minded individuals, editorials.

With Mrs. Marlino helping the students, there have been many new features in the paper; such as, write-ups on the seniors, more cartoons, articles on improvements in the school building, faculty activities, and more pictures.

The paper, published five times each year, was set up at school this year by Clarice Blocher, student editor, and other members of a hard-working staff, who met before and after school to give us a school paper of which we are proud.

"Two's a Crowd"

Despite the inconvenience resulting from a fire which destroyed some of the stage and caused postponement of the play for three months, the gay comedy, "Two's a Crowd," delighted the audience at both performances.

Measles proved too much for the maid, excellently portrayed by Clarice Blocher. Superb performances were done by Jeanne Entricken, Ellie Haynes, and Lee Holloway, as Pat, Dot, and Dick Maxwell, who engaged in a tourist business during the absence of their mother, ably done by Hope Shalles.

Paul Thompson, as Willie Peabody; Charles Hagen, as Albert Wilson, the mysterious stranger, who won $50,000; Grace Blair, as his wife, Hortense; and Nancy Compton, as his glamorous daughter, Annabelle, did outstanding work. Jim Clark and Joe Smith, as Wilbur and Michael Street, and Perry Creyaufmiller, as Dr. Webster, gave fine characterizations.

Lois Lubker, playing a fat woman, Bing Bortle, as the Soda-jerk, and Charles Cella and Patsy Lamb as a little boy and girl, added to the surprise ending.

Particular credit should go to Mary Ellen Jinkner, student director, and to Nancy Perkins, Janice Smeby, and to Joe Standen, Larry Miller, and Charles Flinn for their splendid job on the scenery construction and decoration.

All of this work was accomplished under the guidance and instruction of Mr. F. W. Brown.

Debating Team Places Second

The subject for this year's forensic league was "Resolved, "That the President of the United States should be elected by the direct vote of the people."

Under the able guidance of Mr. Kachur, the debating team placed second among the other four schools, Nether-Providence, Ridley Township, Ellis College, Media, debating in our league.

Clarice Blocher was captain of the Affirmative side with James Clark, and Ted Hall as her colleagues. Mary Ellen Jinkner, captain of the Negative, had George Bortle and John Hottenstein as her colleagues.

Prospects for next year's team are Eleanor Haynes, Hope Shalles, Lois Lord, Nancy Fowle, John Hottenstein, and Ted Hall.

Cheerleading Boosts Morale

Early every morning the cheerleaders could be seen going through their regular routine.

Bessie Loomis, our captain, did a swell job of keeping the girls up to par. Those girls who didn't know the yells soon learned them under Bessie's instruction.

This year was one of the peppiest ones we've had in a long time. Everyone was filled with pep, spirit, and enthusiasm to spur the fellows on.

Before the half-year Joan Lubker took the place of Rosemary D'Ambrosio as the second Senior cheerleader.

Orchestra Growth Evident

This year, the orchestra under the direction of Miss Lorana Kahn did very well. It played for the Senior Play and also for the Spring Festival.

Many new members joined the orchestra

this year, and they also helped to make it successful.

Practices were held during school hours during regularly scheduled periods.

Glee Club Works Hard

The Glee Club, although quite small this year, was very busy under the able direction of Miss Lorana Kahn.

To start the year they presented the Christmas Candlelight Service which everyone enjoyed. They also sang for the combined Women's Clubs of Newtown and Marple Townships at one of their meetings.

To climax another year they presented the Annual Spring Festival which afforded much entertainment for their audience.

The Tri-Hi-Y was again this year one of the busiest clubs in the school as shown by the activities listed below.

Their initiation party for new members was one of the best.

At Christmas time the girls gave a Christmas party at Collingdale for orphan children. The girls took gifts and refreshments for Santa Claus to give the children.

The club sponsored Canteen for half a year and had many special dances.

To raise money for their mother-daughter banquet, which was held on May 8, the sophomore and junior members sold Easter eggs.

On April 25, they held their annual Tri-Hi-Y swimming party at West Chester Y.M. C.A., where everyone enjoyed swimming, bowling, dancing, and eating.

The Tri-Hi-Y also gives a ten-dollar prize at commencement to the senior who excels in a reading test.

"High Purpose"

The boys' Hi-Y successfully came through its second year at M.-N. under the capable leadership of Mr. Kachur, who started the club last year.

The club strengthened itself by voting in twelve new members. For initiation they were dressed in girls' clothes and were paraded up and down the main street of Media.

We are very proud of our president, George Bortle, who was elected as a representative to the model Senate, which met in Harrisburg in March. Bob Snelling also brought honors to our club by becoming president of the Main Line Hi-Y-ers.

Community

MARPLE GRADE SCHOOL

This new and remodeled school building is an attempt of the community to keep up with its growth. Although the building is not now a landmark, this style of ultra-modern architecture will fade from newness and become as much a part of the community as the octagonal school house has been.

NEWTOWN HALL

Built in 1868, the Newtown Hall was originally a public hall with rooms for lodgers. At various times, a carriage shop, a blacksmith shop, and a shoe store occupied the building, which is now an antique shop and gas station.

NEWTOWN SQUARE FRIENDS' MEETING

In 1711, the Friends in Newtown completed the new Meeting House. They met here until 1791, when the building was altered slightly. Now meeting for worship is held regularly every Sunday. This meeting house, the first church in Newtown Township, has played an important part in the community.

Landmarks

OCTAGON SCHOOL HOUSE

On the left hand side of the driveway of Dunwoody Home there stands a lone remainder of the octagon-shaped institution of learning of a by-gone era.

Built in 1780, the building is now in fairly good condition. In each side there is a window quite elevated from the floor so the student's attention would not be disturbed.

MARPLE PRESBYTERIAN CHURCH

The Marple Presbyterian Church, founded in 1834 by ten laymen, has served the spiritual needs of Marple Township faithfully for one hundred sixteen years. "Old Marple" is now planning to build a new church, but this familiar building will be remembered by the people of Broomall and the surrounding community.

CROSSROADS AT BROOMALL

These two symbols of the past greet the newcomers and are looked upon by old-timers as definite parts of our community.

This building on the northeast corner, now occupied by Ernest Spiller, was erected in 1728. One wall, which still remains, was part of a log cabin. It was originally the bar of the Grove Tavern.

At the intersection of West Chester Pike and on the northwest corner stands a building which before its renovation was a general store and post office. Built in 1817, this general store was taken over in 1832 by Isaac Haldman, whose name is inscribed on the building. In 1868 it became a post office under John M. Broomall, for whom the town of Broomall was named.

Basketball At Marple-Newtown

During basketball season when our teams play at home the Marple-Newtown Gym is crowded to overflowing. Those who crowd it are those who make our athletics possible by their support. Pictured above is a game between Marple-Newtown and Upper Chichester, which Marple-Newtown won, 35-23. In addition to basketball, our football and hockey games in the fall and baseball and lacrosse games in the spring also are followed and supported by the loyal rooters of our communities.

Gridiron Tactics

The M-N Tigers were nailed in their first game by the only team they were supposed to beat (according to the experts), Mount Pleasant.

Then the team, sparked by Parks with two tallies, ran down Norco.

With Blair scoring one and Shaver, two, we trounced West Pottsgrove, with Park's three goals nullified by over-zealous referees.

We battled to a tie with Upper Chichester in the freezing rain of a night game, and came out on the tail end of the score with much-favored Sharon Hill.

All of the boys were up to par for the Nether-Providence game. Parks, who was like greased lightning around the ends, took the ball to the two-yard line, where quarterback Burns plunged over for the only tally in the game.

In our traditional Thanksgiving Day Game with Springfield we were edged out in a hard-fought contest.

Mr. Richute and Mr. Harvey did a swell job of coaching considering that they had the smallest turnout in five years.

Award Winners

John Parks, our fleet-wingback Captain, earned and received the Joseph T. Mullray Award for the best all-round player, while the Best-Lineman Award went to Harold Snyder who has been a first-string guard for two years.

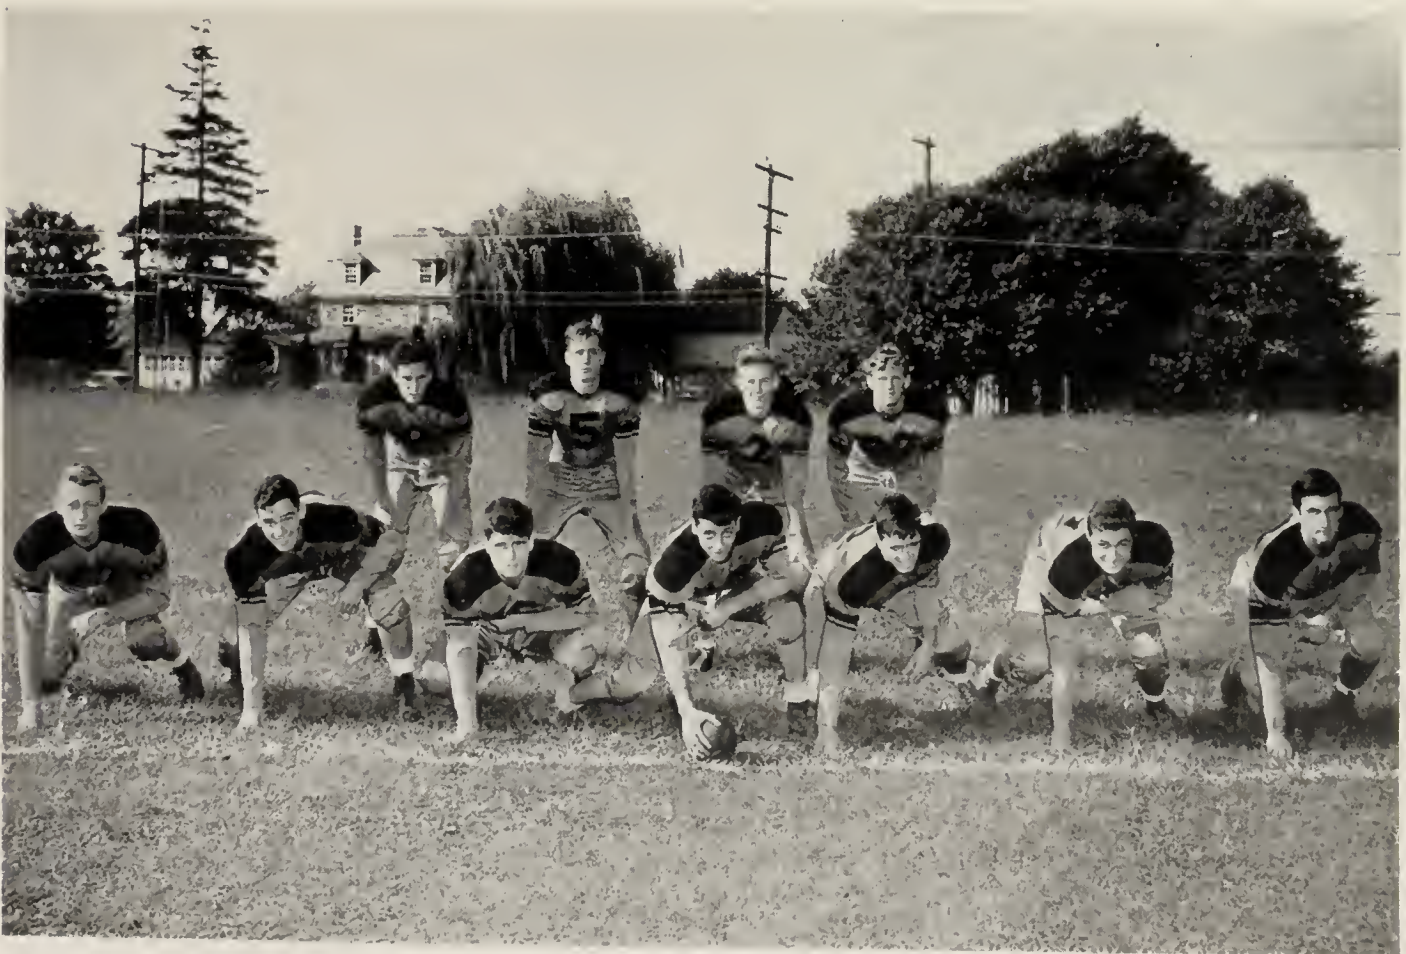

The players that the team is losing are as follows: Parks, Burns, Rubino, Barone, Snyder, Jesnig, Wilson, Creyaufmiller, Snelling, Bortle, and Slavin.

Junior High Shows Promise

The Junior High, coached by Mr. Robert Pittman, came through with a slightly below par team this year. Showing that they had plenty of fight in them, they came through to hand Yeadon a startling upset.

From observation of the team we find the boys show good promise for M-N's future.

Girls' Hockey Team Practiced Hard

There were many action-packed days for the girls after the opening of the hockey season, despite the many knocks and bruises.

The hard practices under the excellent coaching of Mrs. Wade proved successful when we faced the other team.

Our record turned up three wins, three losses, and one tie. All of the games were exciting, especially when we came up against Clifton. It wasn't until the end of the game that they won by the close score of 1-0.

The second team did a good job this year and will go on to prove that they can do an even better one next year in place of those girls lost by graduation.

Practice Is Rewarded by Letters

M-N's Lettermen showed their stickwork by winning four out of seven games. It was the spirit and teamwork of everybody that put us on top.

Those lost by graduation are Bessie Loomis, Captain; Ruth Hipple, Nancy Dutton, Gloria Cronk, Joan Lubker, Ruth Steer, and Rosemary D'Ambrosio.

Teamwork Brings Results

Something new has entered Marple-Newtown basketball. We did not have one outstanding player or two outstanding players, but we had five outstanding players who worked together and took turns being the hero of the game. We're slowly trying to pull our team to the top rung in the basketball field, but this year we slipped a notch only winning three out of ten league games. Mr. Pittman, who rules the team with an iron hand, will tell you that the boys really take their basketball seriously.

In the Kiwanis Tournament, by defeating Nether Providence, we went to the semi-finals only to be defeated by Upper Darby, who placed first on the Tournament.

The J.V.s showed great promise for next year by improving greatly as the season progressed. We wish them the best of luck in the games to come.

In addition to the regularly scheduled games, we saw many thrillers in the intramural games after school.

Varsity Men Awarded Letters

The lettermen this year were Parks, Galt, Rubino, Graham, Shaver, Comer, Schneider, and Nolan. Sam Galt was the high scorer of the team with 156 points. Those Lettermen lost by graduation are Parks, Rubino, and Nolan.

Girls Take the Court

We opened the basketball season with a great showing of spirit and teamwork. Although we ended it with a little less spirit, the teamwork was still there. Everyone did her best in spite of the disappointment of an unsuccessful season.

Our lack of height was a big disadvantage, as it seemed that the other teams had all the tall girls.

We want to congratulate our coach, Reggie Wade, and our managers, Mary Ellen Jinkner, Betty Kemp, and Ruth Steer, who did an excellent job.

The J.V. showed promise this year. We hope to see them plugging for M-N and winning many of their games next year.

Lettermen Strong But Overpowered

The Varsity under the direction of Reggie Wade fought through one of the hardest seasons of basketball. At the end of the season the record stood at one win and six losses.

Those lost by graduation are Joan Lubker—Captain, Bessie Loomis, Ruth Hipple, Nancy Dutton, and Clarice Blocher.

CROSLEY first in the world with the world's safest brakes

AIRPLANE-TYPE HYDRAULIC

Yes, it's Crosley for the latest features, for the new, safer, simpler hydraulic brakes—Hydradisc Brakes. These are the type of brakes used on the biggest and fastest military and commercial planes, brakes that stop planes landing at 100 miles per hour and more.

A new, tested and proved spot disc principle is used in the Hydradisc Brake. You get positive braking action even under the worst conditions—water, mud, slush, ice or oil.

One simple external screw adjustment—long-lived braking material.

Hydradisc are costlier brakes—but there's no increase in the price of Crosley cars. Crosley is still the new car with the lowest down payment, the lowest monthly payments. Crosley is still the car that saves money by the mile—up to 50 miles on a gallon of regular gasoline. Stop in and drive the new Crosley cars with the world's safest brakes!
